INDUCTION PROGRAMME

ALETHIA 2022

(Inauguration of Under graduate Programmes 2022 Admissions)

Every year Alphonsa College Thiruvambady (ACT) begins its Bhirdharambam in a unique way. The college envisages that all Alphonsians, who come out of the campus after the completion of their graduation or post-graduation, are job-ready, having wide awareness of society, holistic attitude on life, capable of rational thought, compassion, empathy, courage and resilience. ACT is very much particular that each and every aspirant of undergraduate or post graduate programme is groomed in this way and therefore, the preparation to bring the best out of them begins from day one. Since its inception ACT has been striving to ensure that each student identifies his or her full potential in as such a way that they can contribute something not only to the professional arena but also to their families, the society in which they live and the natural environment.

The Induction Programme of the year 2022 also is not an exception to this rule. The Inauguration of the U.G. Programmes was marked with the presence of eminent personalities like Lida Jacob IAS (Retd.), noted educationist and bureaucrat, Rev. Fr. Joseph Palakkattu, Director of the Educational Trust of the Diocese of Thamarassery, etc. The programme of the year started with a welcome note proposed by Ms. Deepa Dominic, PTA Secretary. Rev. Fr. Scaria mangarayil, the college Manager delivered the presidential address. Rev. Fr. Joseph Palakkattu, the Director ACT, inaugurated the session. Dr. Chacko K.V., Principal of the college congratulated the students and their parents on choosing Alphonsa College for their Undergraduate Programme. He provided a bird's eye view of the salient features of Alphonsa College and how ACT remains unique among the other colleges under the University of Calicut. He introduced different Add on/ Certificate Courses and their scope in the fast changing world. During his speech he underscored the need of being equipped with need of the hour and be potential job grabbers. Rev. Fr. Geo Mathew, the IQAC Coordinator provided a brief idea about the myriads of Clubs and Forums at ACT and different activities and programmes they conduct every month.

The Business Session started by 11.00 am. Ms. Lida Jacob IAS, (Retd.), the guest of the day gave valuable insight to the parents and students alike. The first part of the session was meant for both parents and children. During her talk she reiterated the aspirations of the parents regarding their children and multiple challenges they face in the current scenario. The personal experiences of the speaker enlivened the session. The latter part of the session was set aside for the parents exclusively, while the students moved to their respective classes, met their tutors and collected their class timetable before they went on a campus tour.

In the second session Ms. Lida spoke at length about good parenting- how and why they need to be a role model to their children, the impact of positive reinforcement, why the children should share their daily experience at the college with their parents, the necessity of entrusting responsibilities upon students etc. All in all the programme turned out to be a novel experience to all. The programme was concluded at 1.30 pm with the official vote of thanks proposed by Mr. Sebastian Cherian, the Staff Secretary.
