

Learning Outcomes: On completing the course students will be able to:

1. Understand cost and management accounting concepts and its application for decision making.
2. Aware as to cost consciousness and the various methods and techniques of costing