

Objectives:

To provide the students a sound information and knowledge of broad framework of financial markets and institutions.

To impart the students an understanding of the inter-linkages and regulatory framework within which the system operates in India