

Objectives:

1. To acquaint the students with the basic analytical techniques and methods of financial management of business organization.
2. To provide the students the exposure to certain advanced analytical techniques that are used for taking financial policy decisions.