

Course Objective:

- This course intends to develop conceptual knowledge of Business Management. The study approach also enables students to understand and analyse practical aspects of management to become skilled manager in a corporate business set up.